YOUR DAY BY DAY

Day 1 · Monday, October 4
Arrive at Boston Logan, where your tour director is waiting. Transfer to your hotel in Revere, settle in, then gather for a welcome dinner.

Day 2 · Tuesday, October 5
A guided tour of historic Boston and the Freedom Trail, free time at Faneuil Hall Marketplace, then west through the Pioneer Valley to Stockbridge and the Berkshires.

Day 3 · Wednesday, October 6
North to Bennington and its monument, then Hildene in Manchester — Robert Todd Lincoln's 24-room estate, its gardens and its 1908 Aeolian organ.

Day 4 · Thursday, October 7
A full Vermont day: a family maple sugarhouse, the Cabot Creamery Annex, Cold Hollow Cider Mill, and the Trapp Family Lodge for a history talk, private wine tasting and Austrian dinner.

Day 5 · Friday, October 8
Into the White Mountains for the Mount Washington Cog Railway, then the Kancamagus Highway — one of the country's great scenic drives — to Loon Mountain.

Day 6 · Saturday, October 9
Historic Wolfeboro, a cruise across Lake Winnipesaukee aboard the M/S Mount Washington, a wagon ride at Moulton Farm, then on to the Maine coast at Ogunquit.

Day 7 · Sunday, October 10
Kennebunkport and Dock Square, a lobster cruise with a working Maine lobsterman, the Nubble Lighthouse, and a traditional lobster dinner to close the day.

Day 8 · Monday, October 11
Breakfast together, then a transfer to Boston Logan with a week of New England behind you.
