Charleston, Carriages & Musicals

Sunday, November 22

There's nothing quite like Charleston in the fall and this quick getaway is built to soak up the best of it without a single worry about driving, parking, or planning. We'll board our motorcoach in Myrtle Beach at 8:00 AM and settle in for an easy ride down the coast, arriving in the heart of Charleston's historic district by mid-morning.

Your first stop is the famous Charleston City Market, four blocks of local artisans, sweetgrass basket weavers, and Lowcountry treats. Enjoy free time to browse, explore the surrounding streets, and grab lunch on your own at one of the many nearby favorites.

After lunch, we'll see the city the way it was meant to be seen: by horse-drawn carriage. Your guided carriage tour winds through cobblestone streets and past antebellum mansions, hidden gardens, and centuries of stories told by guides who know them all. Afterward, there's a little more time to wander before we head to the DoubleTree by Hilton in North Charleston to check in, freshen up, and put our feet up for a bit.

Tonight is the main event. We'll gather for an included dinner, then head to the North Charleston Performing Arts Center for The Bodyguard, the smash-hit musical based on the beloved film and packed with unforgettable Whitney Houston hits. And here's the best part: you're in Orchestra seating, right where you want to be. When the curtain falls, your coach is waiting to take you back to the hotel. No traffic, no parking garage, no stress.

Charleston Tea Garden, Lunch in Mount Pleasant & Home

Monday, November 23

Wake up to a relaxed morning and enjoy breakfast at the hotel before we set out for one of the Lowcountry's true hidden gems: the Charleston Tea Garden on Wadmalaw Island, home of American Classic Tea and the only large-scale tea garden in North America.

You'll ride the open-air trolley through acre after acre of tea fields while your guide shares how tea has been grown here for over a century, then step inside for the factory tour to see exactly how fresh-picked leaves become the tea in your cup. Before we leave, there's time to sip complimentary samples and browse the gift shop. A tin of Charleston tea makes a wonderful souvenir or holiday gift, just in time for Thanksgiving hosting.

From there we'll make our way to Mount Pleasant for a leisurely lunch stop on your own, then enjoy a comfortable afternoon ride up the coast. We'll have you back in Myrtle Beach by late afternoon, home in time for dinner with a camera roll full of Charleston.
