About This Trip

Some love stories deserve the big stage, and this one takes you straight to where it belongs. This two day escape through the Lowcountry sets the scene with moss draped oaks, antebellum charm, and Southern hospitality before the curtain even rises. The ay blends the romance of the screen with the beauty of real Charleston, from plantation grounds to cobblestone streets, g in orchestra level seats for a musical night you will be talking about for years.

Boone Hall & Showtime

Sunday, April 4

The day begins with a scenic ride down to the Lowcountry, landing at Boone Hall Plantation for a stroll beneath the very oaks made famous on screen. From there it's a Southern barbecue dinner to fuel up before the main event: orchestra level seats for The Notebook, live on stage.

 Dinner Included
