Overnight Flight to Dublin

Thursday, August 5

Our Irish adventure begins today as we depart on an overnight transatlantic flight to Dublin. After checking in and settling into our seats, we'll cross the Atlantic Ocean while the sun sets behind us. This overnight flight allows us to maximize our time in Ireland, as we'll arrive tomorrow morning ready to explore.

Use the flight time to rest, enjoy in-flight entertainment, or perhaps read up on Irish history and culture to prepare for the magical experiences ahead. The anticipation builds as we journey toward the Emerald Isle, where ancient castles, dramatic coastal cliffs, charming villages, and warm Irish hospitality await us.

Overnight: In-flight

Tomorrow we touch down in Dublin, where our Irish exploration truly begins!

Welcome to Ireland - Dublin

Friday, August 6

Welcome to Ireland! Upon arrival in Dublin, you will be met and transferred to the elegant Mari Hotel, beautifully positioned overlooking Dublin Bay. Settle into your surroundings and enjoy some time to relax after the journey, perhaps taking a stroll along the nearby seafront or simply unwinding at the hotel.

This evening, gather together for our Welcome Dinner, the perfect introduction to the journey ahead. Over good Irish food and warm hospitality, we'll toast to the beginning of our Fairytale of Ireland adventure and the landscapes, stories and experiences awaiting over the coming days.

Cliffs of Moher, the Wild Atlantic Way & Dingle

Saturday, August 7

Today we leave Dublin behind and journey we towards one of Ireland's most spectacular natural landmarks – the magnificent Cliffs of Moher. Rising dramatically above the Atlantic Ocean, the cliffs stretch for miles along the Clare coastline, offering sweeping views across the sea and, on a clear day, towards the Aran Islands.

Our journey continues south through the landscapes of Ireland's celebrated Wild Atlantic Way, where rugged coastline, green countryside and small villages accompany us along the route. We then cross the broad Shannon Estuary by ferry from County Clare into County Kerry before continuing towards the beautiful Dingle Peninsula.

By evening, we arrive in the colourful harbour town of Dingle, one of the true gems of Ireland's west coast. Tonight, enjoy dinner together in Dingle and settle into the relaxed rhythm of this charming little town.

The Slea Head Drive - Dingle

Sunday, August 8

This morning we embark upon one of the most beautiful coastal drives in Ireland – the legendary Slea Head Drive. Winding around the western edge of the Dingle Peninsula, the route reveals an extraordinary landscape of rugged cliffs, sweeping Atlantic beaches, ancient stone settlements and distant views towards the Blasket Islands.

Along the way, we'll discover a part of Ireland where the Irish language, traditional farming and centuries of local history remain deeply woven into everyday life. Around almost every bend comes another spectacular view of the Atlantic.

Later, return to Dingle and enjoy time to experience the town at your own pace. Wander amongst its colourful streets, browse its little shops and galleries, find a cosy pub for some traditional music or simply sit by the harbour and enjoy the atmosphere of one of Ireland's most beloved coastal towns.

Falcons, Whiskey and Free Time in Dingle

Monday, August 9

This morning begins with a wonderfully memorable encounter with some of Ireland's most impressive birds of prey. During our falconry experience, learn about these magnificent birds and the ancient traditions surrounding falconry before having the opportunity to see them in action at close quarters.

We then turn from one Irish tradition to another with a visit to Dingle Distillery. Founded on the edge of town, the distillery has become renowned for its small-batch Irish whiskey. Discover the craftsmanship behind the spirit before enjoying a tasting and raising a glass to our time on the Dingle Peninsula.

The remainder of the afternoon is completely free. Return to a favourite corner of Dingle, enjoy a leisurely lunch, browse the local craft shops, take a harbour walk or simply find a welcoming pub and watch the world go by. After several days of exploration, it is a lovely opportunity to slow the pace and simply enjoy Dingle.

The Wild Atlantic Ring of Kerry & Whiskey Barrel Bath

Tuesday, August 10

The Wild Atlantic Ring of Kerry and bathing in whiskey barrel Departing in the morning from Dingle, we will be exploring Ireland's most scenic drive route. With 100 miles of beautiful valleys and spectacular coastline, the Ring of Kerry is an amazing drive so be prepared to have your cameras and phones fully charged ; we'll have plenty of stops along the way. Halfway through, we'll stop for some lunch in the quaint village of Sneem. With our bellies full it's time for us to chill. We'll each indulge in an individual whiskey barrel seaweed bath while enjoying the scenic views of the Atlantic.

After our relaxing moments of zen and tranquillity bathing in the medicinal whiskey barrel we'll cross through the scenic valleys of Molls Gap. Finishing our day in Killarney. Celebrated for its lively pubs and charming surroundings.
