Your Island Itinerary

DAY 1, MONDAY, JANUARY 11

Welcome to Key West

Trade the January chill for sea breezes and sunshine. Fly into Key West International Airport at your own pace, and when you land, the resort shuttle will be ready to carry you just a few minutes down the road to our home for the week. We suggest planning to arrive by 3:00 PM so you can settle in and enjoy the afternoon.

The DoubleTree Grand Key is a relaxed tropical retreat with a zero-entry pool, a poolside tiki bar, and yes, a warm chocolate chip cookie waiting for you at check-in. Rooms are ready at 4:00 PM, and if you arrive early, the staff will happily hold your bags while you find a lounge chair and start unwinding.

This evening we gather as a group for our Welcome Dinner. We time it so you can catch that famous Key West sunset as the night begins, meet your fellow travelers, and toast to three days of island living.

DAY 2, TUESDAY, JANUARY 12

Island Day or Dry Tortugas Adventure

Start your morning with a full breakfast at the resort, then choose the kind of day that suits you best.

Optional Add-On, Dry Tortugas National Park. For the ladies ready for a true bucket list day, we set out early by ferry across 70 miles of turquoise water to Fort Jefferson, a massive 19th century brick fortress rising out of the sea. The ferry provides a light breakfast on board and lunch on the island, plus time for a guided fort tour, a stroll along the white sand beach, or snorkeling in crystal clear water. It is a long and unforgettable day, and we will be back in Key West by early evening.

Prefer to keep things easy? Stay behind and enjoy a true resort day. Lounge by the pool, ride the complimentary shuttle into Old Town to browse the shops of Duval Street, or head over to Smathers Beach. This evening is yours to explore, whether that means Key lime pie, live music, or the sunset celebration at Mallory Square.

DAY 3, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13

Old Town and a Farewell Sunset

After breakfast, we head into Old Town to board the Conch Tour Train, the classic way to meet Key West. For about an hour and fifteen minutes, you will ride in comfort past the Hemingway Home, the Southernmost Point, Victorian mansions, and hidden lanes, all while your guide shares the colorful stories of pirates, presidents, and treasure hunters.

The afternoon is free to wander. Grab lunch on your own at a harborside café, pick up a souvenir or two, or return to the resort for a little pool time. We always recommend a slice of Key lime pie somewhere along the way.

Tonight we come together one last time for our Farewell Dinner, timed with the sunset, to share favorite moments and a few laughs before heading home.

DAY 4, THURSDAY, JANUARY 14

Heading Home

Enjoy a leisurely final breakfast before packing up. Check-out is at 11:00 AM, and the resort shuttle will return you to Key West International Airport in time for your flight. We suggest booking a departing flight after 12:00 PM so the morning never feels rushed. You will head home rested, sun kissed, and already planning the next adventure with your travel family.

Know Before You Go

- Booking your flights. Fly into Key West International Airport (EYW). Plan to land by 3:00 PM on Monday, January 11 and to depart after 12:00 PM on Thursday, January 14. Send us your flight details once booked so the resort shuttle can be ready for you.
- January weather. Highs usually run in the mid 70s with lows near 68, so pack light layers, a sweater for the evening breeze, and a swimsuit for the pool.
- What to wear. Key West is casual. Comfortable walking shoes, sunglasses, a hat, and sunscreen will serve you well. The Conch Tour Train and the dinners are both come as you are.

- Pacing. This trip is built to be easy. The resort shuttle handles the driving, afternoons are free, and nothing requires a long walk except what you choose to explore.
- Dry Tortugas day. The ferry leaves early and returns in the evening, with about five hours on the water. Bring a photo ID, motion sickness remedies if you need them, and a sense of adventure.
- Travel insurance. We strongly recommend it. Ask us and we will send you options.
