About This Trip

Escape the crowds and see Yellowstone the way few travelers ever do. This seven day, six night journey departs Salt Lake City on January 16, 2027 and takes you deep into the winter stillness of Yellowstone National Park, reachable in this season only by heated snowcoach. Wander the boardwalks at Fountain Paint Pots, watch Old Faithful erupt for a handful of onlookers instead of a crowd, ide through the Grand Teton valley on a horse drawn sleigh ride among thousands of wintering elk at the National Elk Refuge. The way you will explore Salt Lake City's Temple Square, spend a free day in the western town of Jackson, Wyoming, and at the Utah Olympic Park, home to the 2002 Winter Games and still one of the fastest bobsled and luge tracks on earth.

Arrive in Salt Lake City

Saturday, January 16

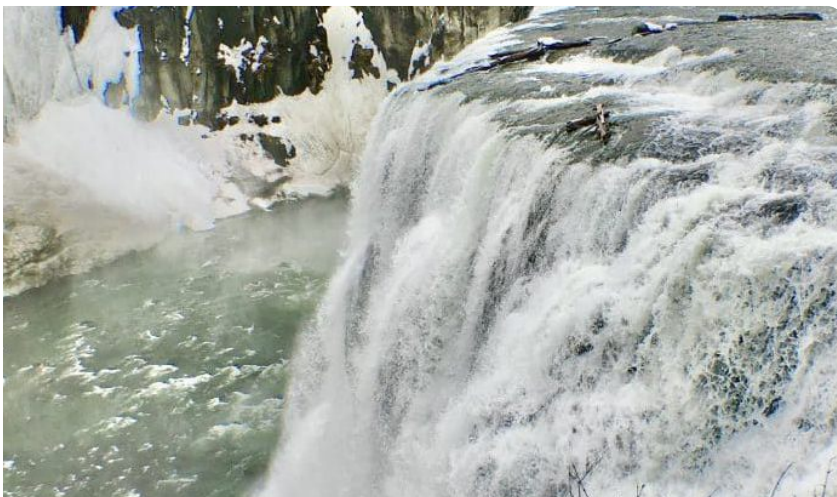

Your winter escape begins in Utah. Plan to land at Salt Lake City International before 1:00 pm, where your transfer downtown is arranged and waiting. Once you have settled into the hotel, meet your local guide for an unhurried tour of the city and its landmarks, including historic Temple Square. This evening the group comes together for a welcome dinner, and by dessert you will have met the people you are about to spend the week with.

 Dinner Included

 Hotel- Sheraton Salt Lake City, UT

North to West Yellowstone

Sunday, January 17

This morning you leave Salt Lake City and travel north into Idaho, with a comfortable stop for lunch on your own along the route. The afternoon is the scenery you came for, rolling through the Island Park area toward West Yellowstone, your base for the next two nights. Dinner is included at a local restaurant, then the evening is yours to wander the town.

 Breakfast, Dinner Included

 Hotel- Starlite Yellowstone, West Yellowstone, MT

Yellowstone by Snowcoach

Monday, January 18

Today is the heart of the trip. In winter the park interior is reachable only by snowcoach, so you climb aboard a heated coach with big windows and an experienced guide who knows exactly where to look. You will stop along the Madison River, walk the boardwalks at Fountain Paint Pots, and spend real time at Old Faithful with no rush at all. Lunch is included, and the ride back adds more picture stops.

Optional add on: snowmobile tour to Old Faithful, $250.00 per person

 Breakfast, Dinner Included

 Hotel- Starlite Yellowstone, West Yellowstone, MT

Elk Refuge, Grand Teton & Jackson

Tuesday, January 19

The Tetons do not ease into view, they simply appear, rising straight out of the valley floor. You travel south with photo stops overlooking the Snake River, then arrive in Jackson, Wyoming for free time and lunch on your own in a western town that has kept its character. Then the moment most guests talk about afterward: a horse drawn sleigh ride into the National Elk Refuge, right in among a herd of thousands. Your guide explains how settlement of the valley changed the elk migration and why this refuge matters so much today.

 Breakfast Included

 Hotel- Elk Country Inn, Jackson WY

A Free Day in Jackson, Wyoming

Wednesday, January 20

Today belongs entirely to you. Some travelers keep it easy with museums, galleries, and a local lunch in town. Others go looking for something more. Your guide is available for transfers if you want to head out, and here are a few of the options:

- Skiing at Snow King or Jackson Mountain
- Snowmobiling in Grand Teton or Togwotee
- Snowmobiling and Granite Hot Springs
- Dogsledding
- Snowshoeing
- Cross country skiing
- Historic Jackson museums and galleries
- Additional wildlife watching A dark sky astronomy experience

 Breakfast Included

 Hotel- Elk Country Inn, Jackson WY

Utah Olympic Park & Salt Lake City

Thursday, January 21

Leave Jackson this morning and travel through western Wyoming, past silver streams, soaring peaks, and wide meadows. You will drive the rugged Snake River Canyon with a stop in Star Valley, then reach Evanston for lunch on your own. The afternoon brings a guided tour of Utah Olympic Park, host of the 2002 Winter Games and still a training ground today. You will see the Utah Ski and Olympic Museum, three Nordic jumps, and the bobsled and luge track, which holds some of the fastest ice on earth. Late afternoon you return to Salt Lake City for a farewell dinner with the group.
